

Health Advances Honored by Forbes as One of America's Best Management Consulting Firms

April 20, 2016

According to Forbes Magazine's 2016 ratings of management consulting firms, Health Advances is one of the 13 healthcare consulting firms that received 4 or 5 star ratings. Most noteworthy, it is one of the 6 firms in this list that received a disproportionately high number of client recommendations.

Proving the power of industry focus and providing senior level attention to all clients, Health Advances is the only boutique healthcare consulting firm in the top 13 list.

Health Advances also received accolades for functional expertise in several categories relative to all consulting firms in all industries. The firm ranks in the top 12 firms earning a 4 or 5 star rating for Marketing, Brand & Pricing expertise. In this category, Health Advances was one of the 6 firms in this list highlighted for receiving a disproportionately high number of client recommendations.

For a complete listing of the Forbes ratings, visit forbes.com.